Meeting rooms in the library bring together the resources of the library and the activities of the community for educational, cultural, civic, recreational and charitable purposes. The Library provides a forum for the expression of diverse ideas and opinions however, use of the meeting room shall not be interpreted to constitute endorsement by the Midland Public Library Board of the policies and beliefs of groups or individuals.

1. The Midland Public Library Board:
 - a) will not knowingly permit any individual or group to use its facilities in contravention of the Criminal Code of Canada. Federal, provincial and municipal legislation and regulations must be observed at all times;
 - b) use of the meeting rooms does not indicate that the Library either advocates or endorses the issue, event or service in the meeting space. The Library is also not responsible for the reliability of information or services provided during a meeting in the Library space;
 - c) reserves the right to accept or refuse a reservation, or to cancel any booking at its discretion;
 - d) will set and review rental fees.
2. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) authorizes the use of the rooms.
3. Staff maintain the schedule and will make every effort to notify scheduled users of the unavailability of the meeting room in case of emergencies.
4. Room bookings will be guided by the following:
 - a) library programs and services, meetings, and events have first priority for scheduling, after which other applications are considered on a first-come, first-served basis;
 - b) any municipal resident, group or business may request to schedule a meeting room;
